

Alaska Health Care Leadership Outlook for 2015

389 responses

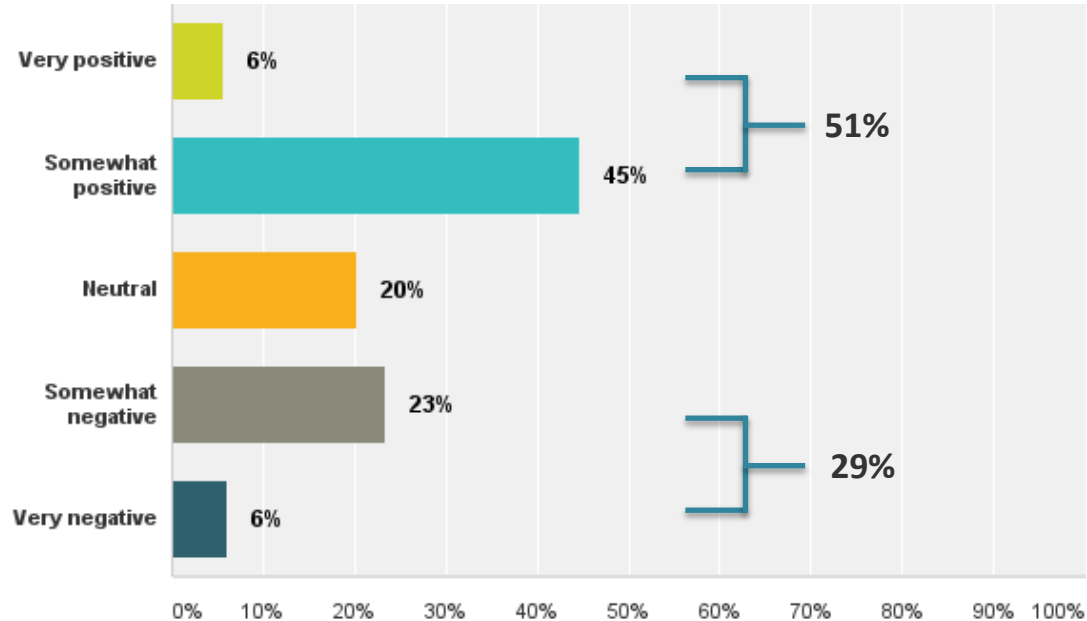

+/- 4.81% margin of error

95% confidence rate

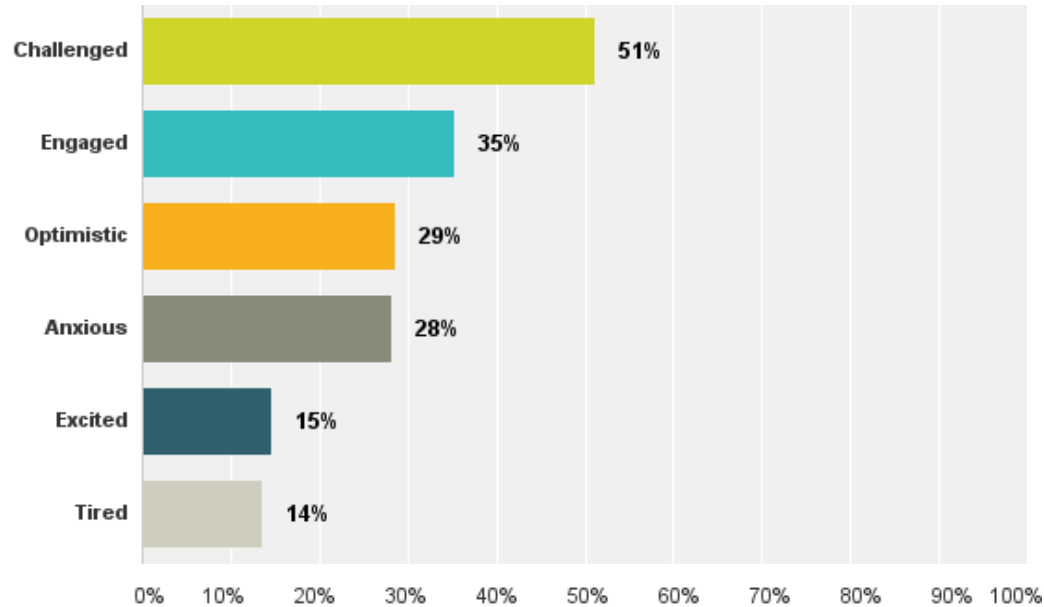

Conducted between Dec. 30, 2014, and Jan. 16, 2015. Survey was distributed to the State of Reform email list of approximately 6,200 recipients constituting a significant portion of Alaska's executive level health care leadership.

The survey was conducted by Wilson Strategic on behalf of State of Reform. Celebrating it's 10th year, Wilson Strategic is the region's leading strategy firm for the health care and human service sectors.

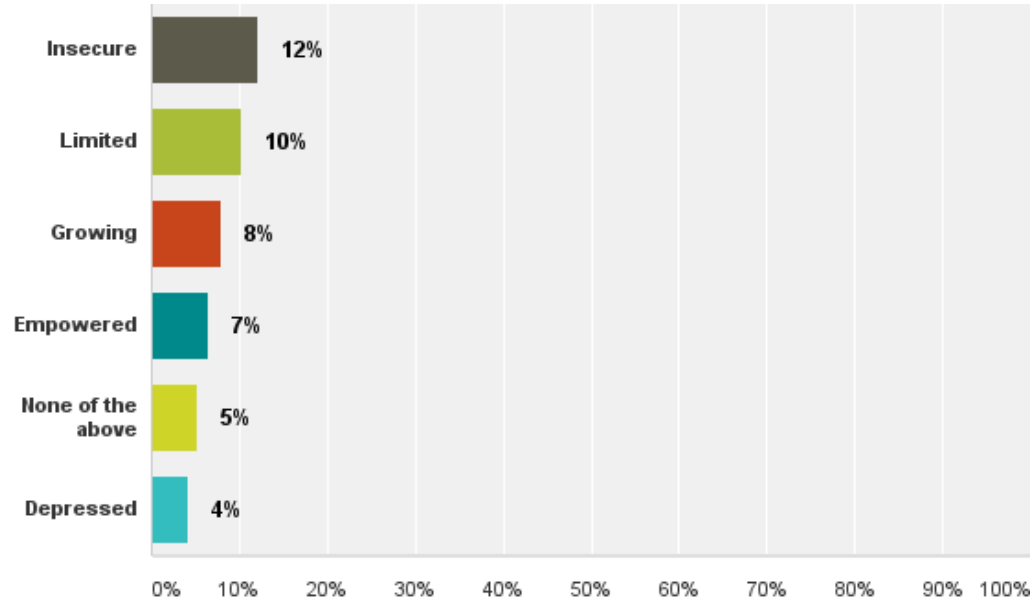

Q1: First, generally speaking, how do you feel about the future of the health care sector in 2015? Would you say you are very positive, somewhat positive, neutral, somewhat negative, or very negative?

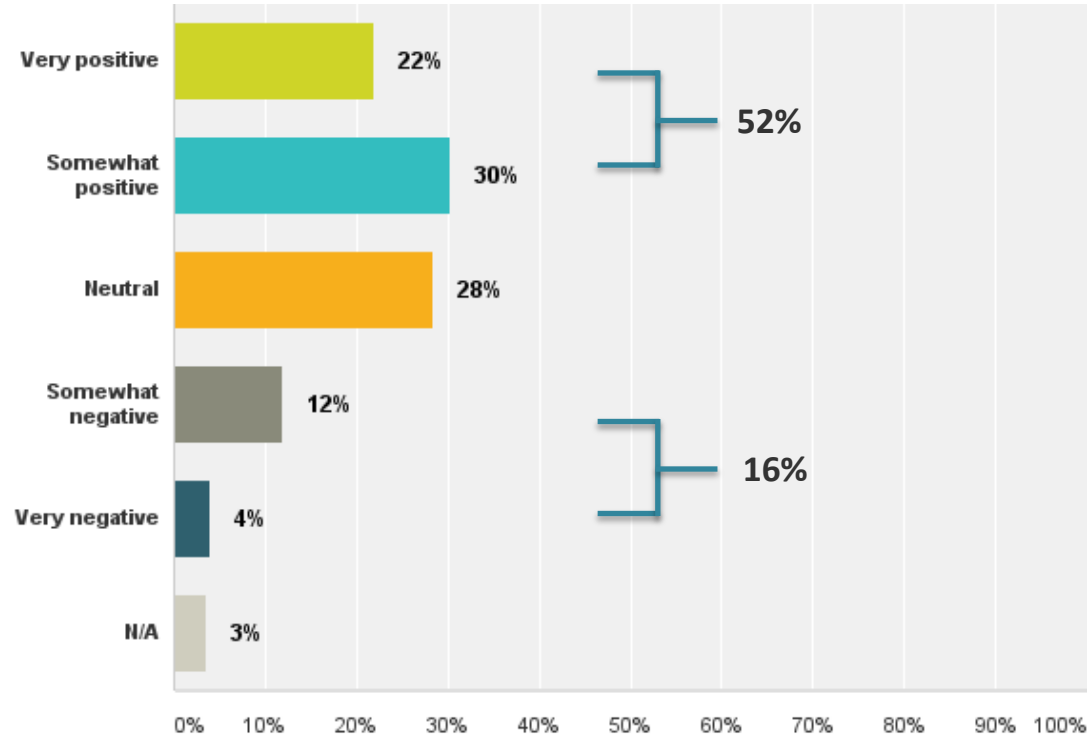

Q2: In addition to your general outlook, which of the following adjectives more specifically describes your outlook for 2015? Please check all that apply.

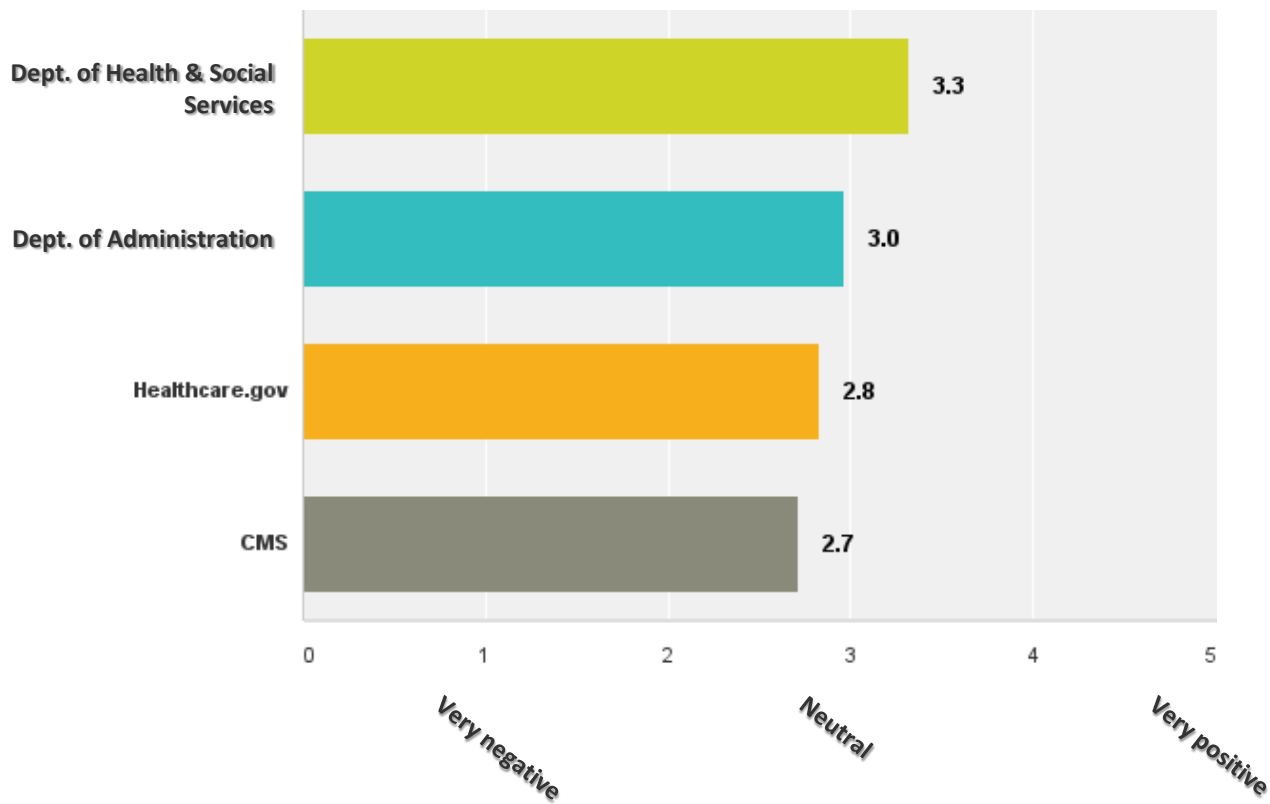

Q2 Continued: In addition to your general outlook, which of the following adjectives more specifically describes your outlook for 2015? Please check all that apply.

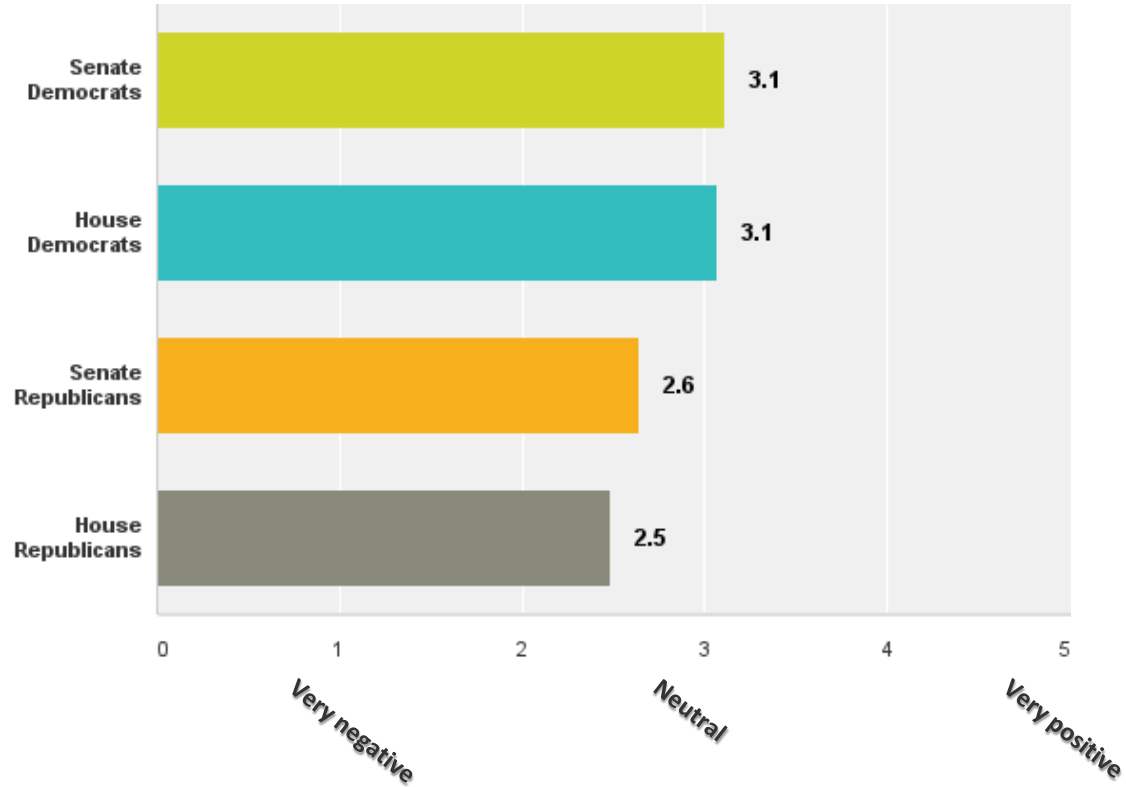

Q3: Generally speaking, how would you rate Governor Bill Walker on health care and health policy? Is your opinion generally positive or negative, based on what you know today?

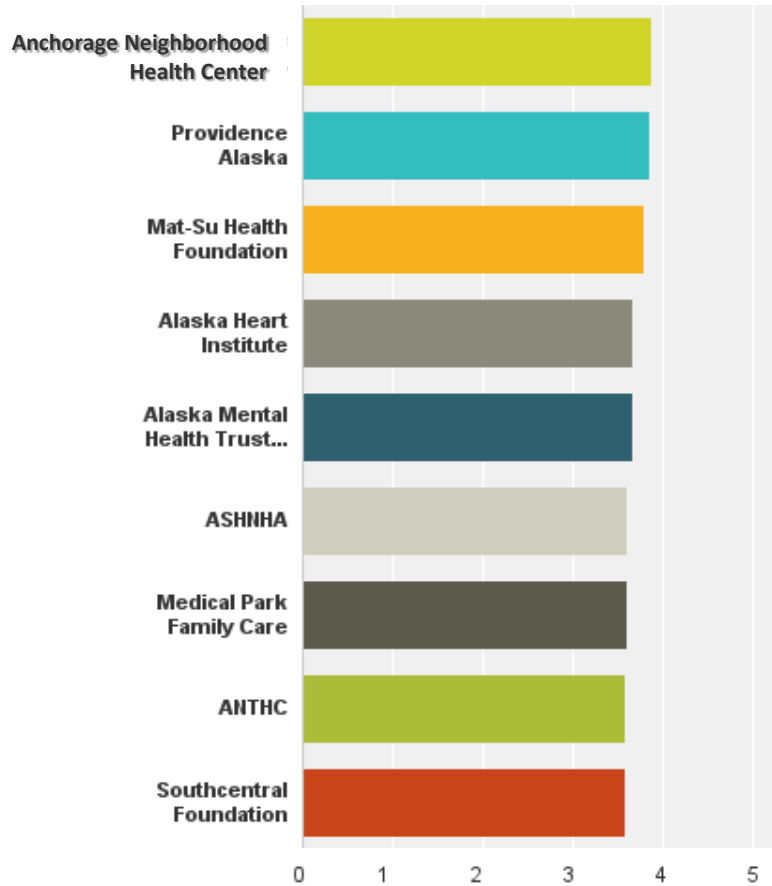

Q4: Generally speaking, how would rate your overall opinion of the following public sector agencies?

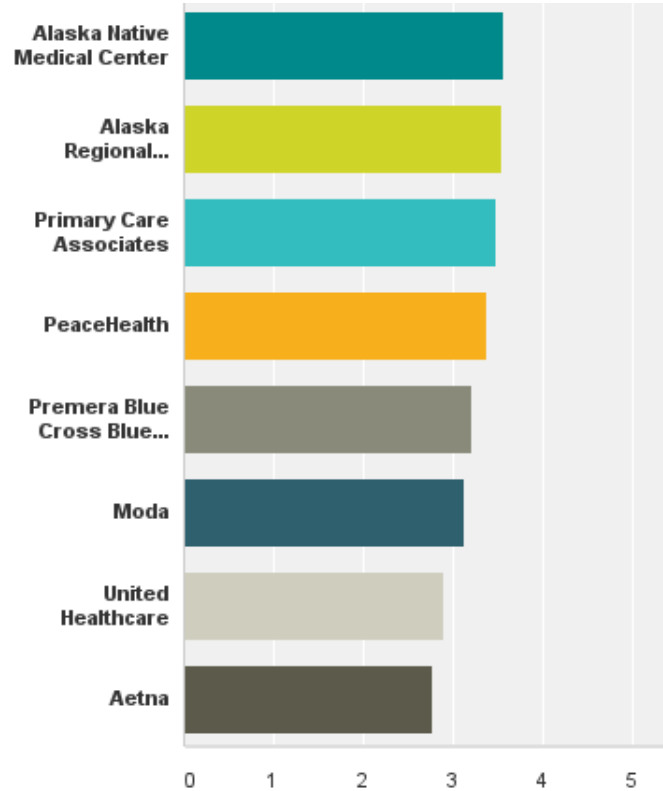

Q5: Generally speaking, how would rate your overall opinion of the following caucuses in the legislature?

Q6: Generally speaking, how would you rate the following health care organizations? If you have no experience upon which to base an opinion, please mark n/a.

Q6: Generally speaking, how would you rate the following health care organizations? If you have no experience upon which to base an opinion, please mark n/a.

Q7: Governor Walker has made Medicaid expansion a central policy position of his campaign and his new administration. Many members of the legislature, including some caucus leaders, have voiced opposition to expansion, particularly in light of the fall in the price of oil.

Based on what you know about the Gov. Walker's intentions to expand Medicaid in Alaska, generally speaking, how confident are you that expansion will be implemented on January 1, 2016, in Alaska?

